

Development Intern (3 positions) Reports to Development Associate

Music@Menlo is seeking three mature, and reliable Development Interns for its 2019 summer festival. Interns will have the opportunity to gain practical, hands-on experience in all facets of a nonprofit development department and acquire valuable insights on the inner workings of an internationally renowned arts organization. As critical team members in the development department, interns will also work collaboratively with the events and hospitality, merchandising, and patron services teams to gain experience in executing donor events, fulfilling membership benefits, cultivating and stewarding festival supporters, soliciting in-kind contributions, managing and analyzing development data, researching individual, corporate, and foundation prospects, and interacting as frontline members of the administrative team with the more than 5,000 ticket buyers and 500 donors who attend sixty-five public and private events during the three-week festival period.

Responsibilities

Pre-festival:

- Plan and execute individualized communication plans for all festival constituents including home hosts, event hosts, donors, volunteers, and staff. This includes event invitations, thank-you cards, and gifts.
- Assist the development department in cultivating relationships with over forty home host volunteers, including attending home host meetings, creating information packets for hosts, and assisting with artist arrival and departure transportation
- Solicit in-kind food and beverage donations, decorations, and discounts from local businesses
- Study and learn about the many details of the festival to ensure an in-depth understanding of all facets of the organization, including programming, venues, schedule of private and public events, artist roster, ticketing policies, and membership benefits
- Conduct prospect research for senior staff
- Assist the marketing department with drafting patron communications
- Coordinate with other intern groups on select projects as required to develop clear and effective internal and external communications, gaining an understanding of an office environment and project management

During the festival:

- Serve as a public representative of the festival and provide excellent customer service to patrons and community members
- Staff and assist in the execution of post-concert dinner parties and other special events which includes nametag creation, picking up and delivering food and beverages, setup, serving, break down and cleanup
- Help maintain donor records in Music@Menlo's customer relationship management database
- Track event RSVPs and communicate all pertinent information to staff and interns
- Produce daily development reports for the senior staff including prospect research
- Assist with setup, staffing, and break down of concessions tables
- Accompany artists to host homes and introduce them to hosts
- Manage and track the written thank-you card process for all festival teams, including the distribution of thank-you gifts for over fifty festival volunteers and in-kind donors
- Assist the Patron Services team with preconcert box office duties for free events, including setup, patron check-in, and premium seating setup

Qualifications

The ideal candidates will have an interest in nonprofit fundraising and management; interest in high quality, exemplary customer service; interest in learning and growing in a fast-paced and sometimes stressful environment; strong organization and interpersonal skills; unwavering positive energy and a willingness to pitch in and be a team player wherever needed; the ability to think quickly, be flexible, and adapt to unforeseen situations; creative thinking to solve last minute challenges; sound judgment, tact, diplomacy, and flexibility with different personalities and working styles. Through this internship, interns will have the ability to further develop these job skills as well as learn new skills.

In addition, the following qualifications are required to ensure a meaningful, well-rounded experience for interns:

- Ability to lift and carry at least forty pounds
- Valid driver's license required. Personal vehicle preferred, however, a company vehicle may be available for work-related errands for those who are at least twenty-one years of age by June 10, 2019. All drivers subject to driving background check. Business mileage for personal vehicle is reimbursable.

Dates, Compensation, Work Hours, Misc. Info

Internship dates are June 10 through August 7, 2019. This is a full-time, seasonal, non-exempt position. Hourly compensation is at the rate of $12.00 per hour. Work hours through July 3 will be approximately 9:00 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., Monday through Friday allowing for one half-hour lunch. Beginning July 8, the work schedule will change to include various forty-hour work week shifts, which may begin mid-week and will include Saturday and Sunday hours plus paid overtime. All interns are required to complete a successful background check as required by California State law. Interns will be responsible for securing their own housing and transportation arrangements in the Atherton/Menlo Park/Palo Alto area.

In addition, interns will receive the following:

- On-the-job training and hands-on experience working with the organization's staff in a professional, supportive environment
- A broad perspective on the many components that form an internationally renowned classical music festival
- Free tickets to select performances, subject to availability and schedule demands
