PRELUDE PERFORMANCES AND KORET YOUNG PERFORMERS CONCERTS

Among the festival's most beloved events, Music@Menlo's FREE Prelude Performances and Koret Young Performers Concerts showcase the exciting young artists of the Chamber Music Institute. In response to the popularity of these events, a free ticket is required for all Prelude Performances and Koret Young Performers Concerts. Free tickets can be requested at will call beginning one hour prior to the start of each concert or reserved in advance online at www.musicatmenlo.org starting at 9:00 a.m. on the day of the event. Seating is by general admission. To learn about reserving tickets in advance of the general public, please see p. 35 of the season brochure.

VENUE SEATING MAPS

Reserved Seating—Seating for paid concerts is reserved at the Center for Performing Arts at Menlo-Atherton and Stent Family Hall. Seating is by general admission in Martin Family Hall and for all Prelude Performances and Koret Young Performers Concerts. Ticket orders are filled in the following order: 1) Members of the Bach Circle ($1,000) and above, based on level of giving; 2) Subscribers, in the order they were received; and 3) individual ticket buyers, in the order they were received. For concerts in reserved-seating venues, seats are assigned on a best-available basis at the time the order is filled.

Venue seating maps are not to scale.

ADA Accessibility

Music@Menlo's performance venues are wheelchair accessible. Patrons requiring special seating accommodations should request them at the time of purchase. For any accessibility questions or requests, please contact Patron Services at 650-331-0202.

For Concert Programs, Carte Blanche Concerts, and Encounters, a minimum age of seven years is required. For younger audiences, please see the Prelude Performance and Koret Young Performers Concert schedule on p. 25 of the season brochure.*
